“ I jokingly say Mrs. Annie Ruth picked Kenny to be her son-in-law when he was 15, hanging freshly strung tobacco in the Lewis's curing barn. The memory of her raving is indelibly etched in my brain. (That selection was just fine, because the Thompson family got Debra in exchange). Everyone knows how wonderful Mrs. Annie Ruth was -- just look at that sweet face-- fewer witnessed her mischievous streak demonstrated after the wedding when she sewed five pounds of rice "nice and tight" into pockets (and makeshift pockets) in Deb's honeymoon wardrobe. She was wise, teaching me the pitfalls of catalog shopping, steering me away from ordering towels from Fingerhut as I prepared for college -- and safeguarded me from a lifetime of junk mail. I learned to generously share the bounty of our garden from observing Mrs. Annie Ruth. The mules that plowed our clay soil couldn't produce as their tractor did in rich loam. I remember a shoe box full of butter beans thrilling my mother. And when our sister Louise retired back to Conway, Mrs. Annie Ruth was on her doorstep with a shirt box full of Amaryllis bulbs.

Now in Texas, nearly every visit to my family included at least a short time with her as family-by-choice. A graveside service for Mrs. Annie Ruth was perfect! I can picture those she loved so much surrounding her plot of earth. This salt-of-the-earth woman was at home in the gardens. She was a devout, courageous Christian, lovingly standing for "right", regardless of any personal pain it may have caused. Additionally, there was strong mutual respect between Kenneth/Debra, (including their daughters) and Mrs. Annie Ruth that grew over their 47 years of marriage. When Mr. Tolar passed, Kenny and Debra did even more to keep her safe and happy in her own home. Eventually she transitioned to living with them. After they could no longer care for her in their home, Saturdays were centered on Mrs. Annie Ruth. During our last visit, she shared that if people lived as Kenneth/Debra do, the world would be a better place. Amen, Mrs. Annie Ruth. Your legacy lives on.

“ Dennie, Deborah and Kim, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss of your precious mother, heaven's gain! Mrs. Annie Ruth and Mr. Tolar were good friends with my parents, Marion and Elsie Vaught, deepened friendship through Gideon service, and special outings to celebrate birthdays. She was such a special lady, with a heart for the Lord, and I know you will miss her. I'm imagining there is great rejoicing in heaven, with her arrival. I hope all your special memories of time with her bring you great comfort now, and in the coming days.

“ To the Family of Mrs. Annie Ruth---so very sorry to hear of your loss. My husband's Mom, Lucille Skipper, resided at Kingston Nursing Center prior to her passing on April 1, 2016. Many times during our visits, we would accompany Mom to the dining room for a meal or ice cream and popcorn on Fridays. Often your Mom, as well as other sweet ladies, sat at the same table. We thoroughly enjoyed the fellowship and interaction we shared with all these precious ladies. We are blessed to have met Mrs. Annie. May God's loving presence as well as wonderful memories bring you comfort during this difficult time in your lives. In Sympathy and Love, Windell & Marilyn Skipper, Greer, SC

Kenny, I can attest that you were as great a son as any son could be to Mrs. Annie Ruth. Debra, Joni and Jennifer were the epitome of daughter and granddaughters, too. Your family will take comfort in knowing that they loved Mrs. Annie Ruth fully.

Mrs. Annie Lewis was one of the sweetest ladies...her friendship with my mother (Gideon's Aux.) was our connection when we visited at Kingston/Pruitt. She loved God and didn't hesitate to tell you about Jesus. May the family have comfort in the knowledge that she is reunited with Mr. Tolar and they are praising God together!! Loved you Mrs. Lewis.
