“ Pat, Jan, and family, Rita and I both felt blessed to be able to to attend "Miss" Annie Lou's service today. There were wonderful memories expressed at the service...and Rita and I shared on the ride back home, too. Pat, you and I both were spoiled by their friends early on..being an "only" child for several years. The years pass so quickly..Yet, she and I enjoyed keeping in touch. Our parents' lives certainly affected each of us in many ways. Take care and to Him ..we give praise and honor. Rita and Anita

“ I spent many hours of my younger years around Ms. Annie Lou Nobles. She was a hard worker, a great cook, and a good Mom and wife to Mr. David. She was one of my mom's best friends. I'll never forget her faithfulness to Good Hope Baptist Church and the adult choir singing alto with Ms. Gen Lilly and Ms. Elise Booth. You could set a clock by her and Mr. David passing by the house going to Longley Supply in their Volkswagen. Decent, hard working, God fearing people. They were always proud of Pat and Jan's accomplishments. Just like my parents, they farmed and worked a garden too. Ms. Annie Lou became a big Clemson fan. Seems like I remember her having a tiger paw on her glasses. A life well lived and an example to follow. We look forward to seeing her again one day. I know all of you have special memories of her to hold on to. May the good Lord continue to bless you.
