“ There was no mention of his children in the obituary. Or another brother that preceded him in death. Whoever writhe this didn't know him.

I think you are confused... did you read this “ Surviving Butch is his partner of 12 years, Betty Baker, his stepson Kevin Baker and his wife Stasha of Conway; the love of his life, his granddaughter Addyson Baker; a brother, Gary R. Miller of Martinsburg, WV, his sister Phyllis M. Church also of Martinsburg, WV; and a very special friend of over 50 years, Leo Swanger.” This is where it would have stated that. Someone fed this information and I am just pointing out the fact that it is not accurate. I met him and his wife. They were both well aware I existed and my relationship to him.

“ Funny they forgot to mention he also has two other biological sons, two biological grandchildren, and two biological great grandchildren. Prayers for him and his family as they could surely use them. Not sure how heaven has room for someone who knowingly has other family and chose to leave them as though they never existed. God bless.
