“ Anthony was loved by all. He was a funny loveable man and he will be missed. What mattered most to him was family. It's our hope that you are all comforted by the fact that the last few months of his life, he lived close to family, whom he saw regularly. He also made many friends where he lived at Eagle Crest and became part of a community that meant a lot to him. We should all find comfort that his last months here, were probably the happiest he's had in a long time. May he rest in peace now, reunited with his parents who he missed so much. Our deepest sympathy to the whole family.##imported-begin##Deb & Al Parker##imported-end##

“ My mother, Doris Walters, lives at Eagle Crest and I am there almost daily. Anthony was a breath of fresh air when he moved in and we all loved him dearly. He touched our hearts and hopefully we all touched his. I never saw some of the residents laugh so hard until Anthony moved in. One resident, Phil Vigado, said he lost his best friend. We will all miss him greatly. Heaven has a special angel. We love you Anthony. Barbara###imported-begin##Barbara Shepherd###imported-end##

“ They say that's always Angels among us, I believe Anthony was one, I new Him very briefly but that's what I thought when we first met. I can't forget his tone of voice that reminded me of a song, I just know that now he is traveling somewhere where he is going to be happy forever...##imported-begin##pina poddie de vita##imported-end##

“ I was speechless when I heard about the passing of Anthony, but I was flooded by many memories of him. A kind gentle soul that loved his family and treated his neighbors like they were family. He had a way about him that captured everyone on 94th streets heart. Anthony was 22 yrs older then me he treated me like a niece , because I was Maria's best friend. He looked out for us girls like a father figure. He was always good for a laugh and teased us all because he loved to enlighten everyone with laughter. I will always treasure his smile, because he always wore it. God Bless you rest in peace, Uncle Anthony oxoxo###imported-begin##Francine Valoroso Ingrassia###imported-end##

“ To My Family, Words cannot express the shock and sadness we are all feeling. I hope that our memories of Uncle Anthony will sustain us as we go through this very difficult experience. I will always remember his sense of humor, his fabulous dancing ability (remember those block parties?!), how he had soooo many friends...Grandma and I used to call him the mayor of Canarsie...his love for music, his need to steal your pens (he was obsessed!) and his love for his family. It is my prayer that he is in a better place along with Grandma and Grandpa...whom he sorely missed. I wish things had turned out differently for him...I think he did the best he knew how to do. I love you all and will keep Uncle Anthony and our family in my daily prayers. All my love, Maria##imported-begin##Maria De Vita Ricardo##imported-end##
