“ Its Almost been a year, and i still miss and love you more & more everyday.. You have the strongest and kindest family, i love them and you so very much, Nevaeha is getting so big and more and more beautiful and your daughters are pulling through strong, having the rough times but they got your spirit in them so they are toughing it all out! Diana is the strongest woman i have ever seen, shes still has not let it sit in her mind long enough to know that your gone but still has a smile on her face everyday! I love you pops and you will always be missed! Thanks for eatching over me!

“ Dad you were the best person/man i have ever meet in my whole life, im so blessed and lucky to say that you are my dad. Its been almost 2weeks and im still in shock, i dont think i will ever believe it, but i will never forget. You always made everyone smile no matter what the situation. Im sooo sorry i wasnt around as much as i could have been but you were always on my mind even if i couldnt see you. I love you sooo much i cant explain and i miss you like crazy, but i got to keep telling myself your not in pain anymore and your with your mom now. Keep looking down on us, and we will keep looking up for you. We will always keep your memory alive and your sense of humor present. I love you Dad and Miss you soo much. Rest in Peace##imported-begin##Rachel aka Faggot##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mr. Anthony David Smith I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we are acquainted with the pain when our loved ones fall asleep in death. Jesus taught us to pray for God's Kingdom to come here upon the earth as it is in the heavens. The fact that the the heavens is peaceful, no sickness, death, etc. is surely a place where we would like to be. So when we pray for these conditions to come on the earth, we are asking God to restore the earth back to its original condition when he created the first Man and Woman. That Kingdom will be a reality here on the earth. The Scriptures promises that the day is soon to come in which death will be no more and that Almighty God Jehovah will wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever. He promises too that your loved ones, my loved ones and many others will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs graves to live in heaven-like conditions right here on the earth.##imported-begin##Annette Pegues##imported-end##

“ I looked up to uncle tony, when I was little I wanted to be just like him, everything he did I wanted to do it too. I loved coming to the beach during the summer cuz i knew when I went to aunt diana and uncle tonys there was loads of fun to come and it cruched my heart when i found out and i wrote a poem in memory of him and i hope everyone likes it: i'll be missing you You were so full of life always smiling and carefree Life loved you being a part of it and i loved you being a part of me You could make anyone laugh If they were having a bad day No matter how sad i was you could always take the hurt away Nothing could ever stop you or even make you fall You were ready to take on the world Ready to do it all Your seat is now empty But please always know No one will ever take your place##imported-begin##Tiffany hensley##imported-end##

“ God blessed you with such a beautiful and joyful life filled with happiness. HE blessed you with a wonderful marriage and two lovely girls young women, I am honored to have known you and you be in my life for over 30 years. You have given me much joy and happiness and wonderfu memories that I will cherish forever. I will always remember the times we went riding on your bike, you teaching me how to waterski, shooting my first shotgun, the fast and crazy rides in the camaro and trans-am. You always brought a smile on everyone's face whenever you entered a room. Your laughter was a unique one that I'll always remember. What I'll miss the most is coming to visit and hearing you say "Hey Kdawgg, watz up? Or hey special K watz kickin'?" No matter how many times i messed something up or turned your bike over in the garage, you never scolded me or yelled at me. You just said "be careful and help me pick it up". I'll remember the the one word you always used when talking to your wife, "Hey Spouse". The many times when we would go to the beach, you always seemed to make everything more fun just by being yourself. The words of encouragement you had given me the last couple of months with what I was going through really helped me in my difficult times. For that I will be forever grateful. You may be gone physically, but you will forever live within each and everyone of us whom you have touched by your wonderful, kindhearted and cheerfull ways. You will be missed dearly and forever live within us. The TONSTER. I miss you My Uncle Tony. YOUR THE BEST.##imported-begin##Kevin Hensley##imported-end##

“ When somebody dies, a cloud turns into an angel, and flies up to tell God to put another flower on a pillow. A bird gives the message back to the World, and sings a silent prayer that makes the rain cry. People disappear, but never really go away. The spirits up there put the sun to bed, wake up the grass, and spin the earth in dizzy circles. Sometimes you can see them dancing in a cloud during the daytime, when they're supposed to be sleeping. They paint the rainbows and also the sunsets and make waves splash and tug at the tide. They toss shooting stars and listen to wishes. When they sing wind songs, they whisper to us, don't miss me too much the view is nice and I'm doing just fine. It is with deepest sympathy we morn the loss Uncle Tony. Our thoughts and Prayers and all of our love are with you and your family at this difficult time of loss.##imported-begin##Caressa, Rodney, Gabriella, Rodney Jr., and Nathan Schade##imported-end##

“ What do you say to a family that has lost their rock? You know we've been there and are still there. Words can never express how my heart goes out to each of you. FAITH is the only thing that will get you through the weeks and months to come. God gives us family and friends that are there for us and cry with us and help us in any way they can. You know I will always be here for you if you ever need me. I'm so sorry I can't be there with you but my heart is there with you. I pray that God will keep you and the girls sheltered in his arms as he does my family. That is how he protects us and helps us through the days ahead. Tony is in a better place and we don't cry for him, we cry for you and the girls. I know how much he will be missed but there will be a great day when you will be able to see him again. Just rely on God and he will never let you down. GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME. I love you all.##imported-begin##Vicki McLain##imported-end##

“ We want you to remember how much we love your family, and for the special fun times we enjoyed together over our life times. God Bless You and keep you and your girls, and may His Loving Arms Hold You and comfort you during the loss of Tony Smith who has gone to be with the Lord. Death is more difficult on those left behind than those that pass to a better place. Our sadness is lessened by our knowledge that Tony knew the Lord. God has a special place for a man that can bring so much love into this world and we know today Tony is watching all of us and crying for our pain because that was the type of person that he was. Tony knows we all look forward to the time we will meet again. Your continued prayers mean a great deal to all of us. We Love you all###imported-begin###Ron & Trish Smith###imported-end##

“ I said a prayer for you today and know God must must of heard. I felt the answer in my heart although He spoke no word. I didn't ask for wealth or fame, I knew you wouldn't mind, I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind. I asked that He'd be near you at the start of each new day. To grant you health and blessings and friends to share your way. I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small, but it was for His loving care I prayed the most of all.##imported-begin##Ron Jr. & Alexa Smith##imported-end##
