“ My first memory of nephew Anthony was as a cute baby with dimples standing in his crib when living in Portsmouth, Va. He made us laugh and brought us much joy then and growing up, never losing his dry sense of humor and enjoying being with family. As an adult he was a Harley guy with a passion for his bike and people, organizing rides to raise funds to support various charities. Sorry we can't be there for the celebration of life, but know we send our love and prayers. God will see the family through this... Jeanette and Malcolm Leaphart, Columbia, SC
