“ I remember how you let me drive your car in Brooklyn when I was only 13 years old. I remember how you were always so loving and generous. You would do anything for your family and friends. You were one of a kind and you left a huge void when you left us. We miss you so much. We will miss your hearty laugh and how you loved us so. My heart is broken once again. Say hi to Nanny, Poppy, Uncle Johnny and Uncle Bobby for me. I miss them every single day. I love you Uncle.

“ I remember when my brother Anthony, had his three friends follow me and my two friends around our neighborhood without me knowing. We was so frightened we ran home. When I told him he was laughing so hard. Then I realize it was his friends. I love ya so much Ang for always keeping feel safe.
