“ Barbara & family When I think of Arnold I remember all the times he prayed over us at our family dinners but I am also reminded of his testimony of how he became a christian-he fought the Lord but the Lord won. We love you & are praying for you. With love Don & Becky McCurrysister###imported-begin###don & becky mccurry###imported-end###

“ I give my deepest sympathies to the family. Arnold and I grew up together. As teenagers, we worked the two Ferris wheels at the old Pavilion Amusement park. He had this thing he did with one eye, where he would spin it round and round and gave himself the look of a maniac. Sometimes the customers would leave when he would do it, rather than ride the wheel, with him in charge. I will miss his antics. I will miss my old friend!###imported-begin###Harold Buster Hatcher###imported-end###
