“ Dear Uncle Arnold, I remember when you spent all day Christmas Day trying to put together my son Chris' new helicopter toy. You spent hours on it only to discover that one part was made upside down!! You had a great time with my son, Chris, and he remembers that day, too, and how determined you were to put together his toy for him!! He was about 6-7 years old. We miss you!!! “ When Arnie decided to buy his own laptop, I was concerned that he would find it overwhelming. He didn't use the internet or email - just wanted something to create his letters and business cards. He got frustrated easily but he always seemed truly grateful when I would help him out and/or fix his problems. He put on this "gruff" front, but he was a teddy bear inside. I will miss him!###imported-begin##Leslie Weiss###imported-end##

“ Dear Aunt Barbara, My heart goes out to you at this time. You were with Uncle for many years some good and some bad. You loved him and comforted him throughout it all. Uncle Arnold was a great uncle and I remember all the fun I had with him when I was young. I know you are comforted in knowing that he is in good hands and with my mom and his mom and dad. We both know that this is just a temporary separation and that we will be with him again in paradise for Eternity. Revelation 21:4 "He will wipe every tear from his eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away"###imported-begin###Ruth Curtis-Napolitano###imported-end##
