

Arthur Charles Callahan

August 9, 1972 - March 15, 2026

Arthur "Art" Charles Callahan passed away, leaving behind a lifetime of memories with the family he loved so deeply. He never met a stranger and will be remembered for his fun-loving personality and for always having a joke ready to make others smile.

Art truly loved the beach. Whether he was walking along the shore searching for shark teeth or just sitting and listening to the waves, it was where he felt most at home. Those moments brought him peace and were often shared with the people he loved most.

He is survived by his daughter, Ashley Hall, her husband Brandon, and their daughter Braelyn (grandpa's girl); his son, Austin Callahan; his brother, Tommy Callahan; his sister, Virgie Benton and her husband Jerry; and his brother, James Callahan and his wife Sheryl.

He was preceded in death by his father, Harvey Callahan; his mother, Eunice Callahan; and his sister, Patricia Callahan who held an extremely special place in his heart.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered by his family and friends.

“ My dear friend brought warmth laughter and Light to everyone. Known as blue eyes on MeetMe he affectionately carried the title of My handsome husband with humor and charm. Where the sky meets the water I know the waves have carried him home. I love you and miss you 💙
