“ I don't have words to express how much Joe meant to me. He was like a father. He was such a wonderful man and I was lucky to have so many years with him. He taught me so many things. We spent hours and hours on the piano and he tried his best to teach me how to play his fiddle. The only thing I accomplished was (how to make it talk.) He always had the patience of a saint. Joe was the person that helped me with science projects, tried to figure out math equations, and showed up for chorus performances and parent/teacher conferences. He was so very special! He amazed me with how talented he was. I think he could play any instrument he got his hands on. Knowing him was a privilege and having him love me was an honor! To the family....I'm so very sorry for your loss! You all will be in our prayers. I'm finding comfort this morning thinking that Mama gets to see her greatest love again in Heaven. He was truly the one that got away!

“ What a great and talented guy Arthur Joe was. He made the fiddle talk! He with his buddies of Martin Hill, Ronald and Walton Singleton, they could play most any kind of instrument. They could hear a tune only once and play it without any notes.

Joe with his friends played at the regular Saturday Night Square Dance at the VFW hut for years in Conway. People would come from everywhere to hear the best Blue Grass music! Joe with his good looks and sense of humor, was ready to laugh and enjoyed being with people. He could do anything, from fixing old cars to cooking a big pot of sausage and chicken bog. What a unique person. We were so proud to have him in our family and in our lives. We always gathered up the crew when they came home to go visit Arthur Joe! He was One of a kind! Couldn't help but love him, enjoy his stories and music and singing. When God created Arthur Joe, he gave him many talents and Arthur Joe was more than proud to show God what he could do with those talents!

Rest in Peace A.J. We sure love you and will miss you.
