“ Hi Cindy and Augie, you both know how sorry we are about Augie's passing. He will live on in all of our hearts forever, especially yours. Many fond memories came from our past together living in Butler Park and sharing all the adventures the park had to give us. I loved working there in my pre-teen and teen years. My most treasured ride was the Merry Go Round and all the old italian music on it. Of course the Longos loved the italian songs and I especially loved hanging around the refreshment stand with Augie, his family and friends from Paterson. And the smell of Rose's spaghetti or any italian meal she made. She tried to fatten me up at times but I was hoping for a modeling career and couldn't eat too much of her super food. Everyone else sure did though. And thanks to Augie we used to get to the carnivals which were so much fun for young people. They had the best one. I still have my Butler Amusement Park banner. Augie will be missed by many.

“ Cindy & Andrew, Sorry it's taken so long to post but I'm just not good at translating my feelings to words at times like these. I do want for you to know that I have always thought the world of your family and pray daily that you get through this with as little pain as possible. Concentrate on the years of cherished memories and your faith to hopefully ease the sorrow and not cheat yourselves of wonderful memories to come. Scott

“ Cindy & Andrew; I continue to pray with you for God's peace and comfort; I can't imagine what you are going through at this time but I know that throughout life God's plan is for the good of His children so I'm sure God's got this and in time you will both realize the good that has come from all the sorrow. It will never get better but it will get easier. I say this only because it is easier to deal with the death of my brother now than it was in 1985. God is good all the time ; know that He will see you through this as He has all the trials in your life. I love you & Andrew and so does God keep the Faith and you will see Augie on the other side....

“ Augie, "I hardly knew ye"! The time I did learn to know you was the best. Cindy, you, and I shared so many funny stories. I especially loved the one about the cat food! I am a better person for having known you! Cindy and Andrew, I know only a little of what you are going through. My heart and my arms are open to the both of you. Cindy, you did actually know what true love is. My best to both of you, and know that I love you!"

“ Augie's love for you will guide you everyday Cindy, he is always there by your side.
I know there are no words to ease the grief you are feeling, nor spare you the sorrow and tears in the days ahead but, perhaps knowing so many arms are open to you and your son will help comfort in some way... you are always in my thoughts and prayers.
Rest in Peace Augie
