“ These are my favorite pictures of Aunt Barbara. Some of my favorites memories are my Dad getting me a pack of chicklets gum and putting me in the truck and we were heading to Aunt Barbara's. Even after Momma died we came down there quite a bit because Dad loved y'all dearly. What I cherrish most of all was the way my Granny and Aunt Barbara would light up with just the mention of each other. They were like two peas in a pod.

“ I have many memories but sharing this one because it's the beginning of them. My son Shawn married her granddaughter Beth. Two families joined together. We were all accepted into her life with open arms, became a part of her heart,welcomed in her home. My son's two older boys suddenly had another great grandmother they were not step anything, baby Shawn was born and he has a great great grandmother. She loved all of us. She was a wonderful caring women. From the family I listen to them tell her to make extra biscuits so she can make her bread pudding that she's known for. Eventually I got some and now I understood all the hype about it. This woman was one who carried on Traditions, baked Turlkey for Thanksgiving, family breakfast on Christmas morning. Many family dinners on Holidaiys, birthdays celebrated together. She was warm,kind hearted,and loving. Devoted to church attendance.Too many memories to share them all. She will be missed!!
