“ My sister is Ann Norwood and she is a resident of Brightwater. Her room is across from where Barbara's was and we felt like she was part of our family. We miss her as you do, but we know that God is taking care of her and she is surely much happier and at peace. May God be with all of you in the days ahead and may you feel his hand holding yours. “ I have looked back to many pleasant memories with Barbara. First as a friend and classmate. Later, when I moved to Myrtle Beach, she and her husband Bob assisted me in several ways. They always made me feel welcome in their home. When I met my current husband Fred, I had to go to Myrtle Beach and introduce him to Barbara and Bob. They sent me a crystal cross for our wedding present. It has a place beside our Bible and when I look at it, I will always think of Barbara and our lifelong friendship. I wanted Barbara to know how very happy I was. She was also very happy for me. I will never forget her.###imported-begin##Mary Ann & Fred Olsen###imported-end##
