

Barbara Bodnar

December 23, 1935 - January 2, 2015

Barbara Halliday Bodnar, 79, died Friday, January 2nd in Myrtle Beach, SC. Born and raised in the Trenton, New Jersey area she became an avid golfer after moving to Garden City, SC in the 1990's and told everyone she met how much she loved living in South Carolina.

Barbara was a proud graduate of Hamilton West in Hamilton, NJ before joining her father and many cousins, aunts and uncles at AT&T (aka Ma Bell) where she worked until 1985. She spent many evenings bowling in leagues where she met her future husband Bob.

In the early 1990's she and Bob became snowbirds in Myrtle Beach, SC. They both fell in love with the warm winter weather and moved to spend their days golfing.

Barbara was preceded in death by her husband Robert G. Bodnar and her parents George and Ellen Halliday. She leaves behind a daughter Samantha (future son-in-law Antonio), a son Craig (wife Darcie), three granddaughters Andrea, Paige and Jacqueline and many friends and family.

A viewing will be held on Friday, January 9, 2015 from 6 to 8PM at the Goldfinch Funeral Home in Garden City, SC. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ Barb was a great friend and a good person. She was the only one I know that could hit the golf ball straight down the fairway every time. Going to miss her! Debbie Oberlin
