“ I have so many memories of Barbara and Chas. My MOST favorite is the evenig of their wedding. They invited everyone to what everyone thought was a holiday party..... we were all socializing, when all of a sudden a pastor dressed in a black robe came out and caught everyone's attention to announce the wedding of Chas and Barbara. It was such a GREAT surprise to all of us.... and a WELCOMED beginning of a wonderful partnership.

I will miss Barbara's beautiful hair, her wordrobe, her sense of humor and her gracious presence.

I love you, Barbara. And I will miss you!

Barbara was my sister-in-law many years ago when she was married to my brother Wayne Goude. Although I haven't seen Barbara in years, she and I had a very good relationship back then. She did have a wonderful sense of style and she and I spent many good times shopping and dressing.

Barbara and I shared lots of things...laughs, quiet moments, serious thoughts, memories...sorry I didn't know she had become so ill. May God grant Chas and all of her family peace and strength for the days ahead.
