

Barbara J. Motley

February 13, 2006

Murrells Inlet Barbara Motley, wife of James E. Motley, completed her earthly legacy Monday morning at Waccamaw Community Hospital in Murrells Inlet. She is survived by her husband; children Pamela Mills Talbert and James Motley Mills; grandchildren, Christiane Nicole Mills, Kira Whitney Chucta, Jason Motley Mills and Jacob Franklin Mills all of Murrells Inlet; brother, Walton Jameson of Columbia; and an aunt, Mannie Ruth Westbury of Orangeburg. She was born on January 15, 1932 to John David Jameson and Bernice Sturkie Jameson both deceased of Boletown in Orangeburg County, SC. Barbara loved gardening and travel with friends, and this community, where she has left her indelible mark since she and Jim moved here from Columbia in 1973. Local residents came to know Barbara when her coveted secret chili-dog recipe gave rise to The Sandwich Castle Restaurant; there they enjoyed her warm hospitality and delicious recipes between 1975 and 1989. But it was her family to whom she gave her deepest devotion, especially the grandchildren for whom she helped provide the Pawleys Island Montessori School. Barbara was a long time member of Belin Memorial United Methodist Church. Her Memorial service will be 2:00 PM, Thursday at the church with a private burial. The family will receive visitors at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel from 6:00-8:00 on Wednesday. Seldom has so much courage and strength been held in such a small frame. She battled the enduring pain of rheumatoid arthritis and the challenge of lung cancer and its treatment, brave and tough to the last. Now her peace is complete and well-deserved and she walks, smiling wide and blue eyes bright in the company of One she has known since childhood. Tha-a-a-t's right. Memorials may be made to Incare Hospice, 4685 Hwy 17 Bypass, Myrtle Beach, SC 29588.
