“ I only spoke with you on a few occasions, but you quickly became one of my most favorite persons. Your personal convictions made for interesting and honest conversations and I cant look at anything regarding Frank Sinatra without thinking of you. You will be greatly missed. May God hold your family in his hands.##imported-begin##rhonda lawson##imported-end##

“ Dear John and family, I was very saddened to read in this morning's Courier Post of the death of Barbara. Many years ago we lost contact with each other, but I have never forgotten you and Barbara as a young couple at Bethany in Gloucester, who were role models to me and many others. I'm sure that you had a tremendous influence on my life and future vocation. May God bless you with many wonderful memories of the past 51 years, and may He give you strength to carry on. With fond memories, Lou Dunkle##imported-begin##Pastor Lou Dunkle##imported-end##

“ John and Dawn, We are so sorry to here about Barbara's passing. I know from talking to Dawn she has not been well for quite a while. John, I'm so glad our children were able to find each other. You and Barbara were so good and kind to our Michael. I just know he is right there with Barbara in Heaven discussing the up coming elections.
