“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God’s word the bible. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ My sweet memories of my "Mama Johnson" are those surrounding my teenage years, when I could not have asked for a more wonderful second mom. I always knew she cared, loved, and supported me. Her enduring spirit of compassion and love never left me. Her solid advise and guidance never failed, though I must admit I sometimes "failed to act like a lady!!" Indeed sweet memories of someone who enriched my life. Love to you all.

She was simply a great lady. Dave and I are forever in debt to her -- and my late mother -- for getting us together as kids to go to the pool together. I always enjoyed her thoughts and her laugh; she even trusted me to watch over her home when she was out of town. The last time I saw her was when she and Charlie came to Michigan in their mobile home to see Dave and his family -- we drank and ate in the mobile home and had a fabulous time. My heart goes out to Charlie, Bill, Jane, Dave and their great families. Loved her!
