“ I lived in Myrtle Beach for 4 years and worked at St James. That is where I met Barbara. She was so friendly and nice that she immediately became my best friend there. I will always cherish her friendship. She made me laugh, she made me cry and I will never forget her...She was a great lady!

“ One of the joys of my almost-seventeen years as pastor of St. James was that smile as Barbara greeted me at Saturday 4:30 Mass. One of the greatest blessings was the ministry Barbara developed and led to serve grieving families preparing for the funeral of a loved one. I feel very disappointed that Barbara's Funeral Mass (NOT Memorial Service) will be on a day where ministry commitments require me to be out of state. I'm sure that family, friends and parishioners will give her the send-off she deserves, though it will be missing something special without Barbara lovingly coordinating everything. Much love, dear Barb.

“ Barbara, I sent you a Facebook message. I'm so sorry to hear of your mom/grandmother's passing. My parents (Claire and Jim Wynne) lived up the street from your parents. We saw them every time we visited my parents and they were always so nice to my boys. I know my mom will miss talking to your mom and catching up on neighborhood news. Unfortunately, my mom's health doesn't allow her to make the trip to her service. Sending prayers of peace and strength to all. Jean Brosius
