“ Deepest Sympathies from the Sunder Family. Mrs O was a great lady, friends with my Mom from the Jeannette days. I always remember her stopping to see my Grandma Greiner on Margret Street when she was in town visiting her parents. Memories of her always being cold, wearing turtlenecks and ear muffs around the house, even in the summer. We always found it odd because the family had a Heating and Cooling Company. We always gave her the business about it, but she chuckled, she was a good egg.

Pat would have Paul Perkovich, Jim Urban, Frank Butter and I over periodically to play. It was the busiest driveway in the neighborhood. Always a game of hoops, football in the back yard or whiffle ball on the street and Mrs O would always provide cookies and drinks.

Can't take those memories away. Rest in Piece Mrs O and God Bless to the extend O'Neil Family.

Barry Schoolyard Sunder.
