“ My sincere condolences to the family! It is heartbreaking to know that Barbara could not have a traditional funeral so that many of those who loved her could say their final goodbyes. Covid 19 has really stripped many good people of allowing others to share their final respects. Barbara was like a mother to me and I am sure she was like a mother to others as well. She stayed in contact on a regular basis and was always supportive. She may be gone, but she will never be forgotten. Thanks Barbara for being a loving and caring person. May you rest in peace!
