“ My deepest sympathy to each member of the family. She was my girlfriend, my "buddy" in the days of Loris High School. I can still see her beautiful smile and hear her laughter as I recall the many memories we made during our special years together. A true lady, with a sweet sense of humor and a heart of gold. I loved her then and I love her now. "The angels rejoiced when they saw your face; rest now, my special friend."###imported-begin##Button Benton Boyd###imported-end##
