“ Barbara was a dear friend who lived life her way. Always laughing, gracious to all she met, and an unforgettable character who loved good friends and good food. The world is a little sadder and grayer without her.

I remember when She brought my daddy a possum pie , we laughed and laughed, every year after he ask for his possum pie (just the name of the pie, it was delicious) She was a sweet heart, I would stop over to see her flowers and her little garden out back. She would call me on my moms birthday and told me she never forgot her. My mom and dad thought the world of her. I too thought she was special and had a heart of Gold.
