“ I'm shocked and saddened to hear of Barons passing. He and my son Trent were friends during the early years of school. I saw Baron often over the years and he always offered a hug and we would catch up. He always asked about his old friend and wished him well. Baron was a sweet, kind soul. He loved talking about old BMW'S and fixing them up. It was always funny talking with Baron about the shenanigans that he and Trent got into. I remember the year Baron got a paintball gun for his birthday and "accidentally" shot the side of the shed a few times. He was so scared he'd get caught. Silly little boys being boys. Awesome young man, terrible mistake. Very much loved by many.

“ We are in shock. Barron’s smile lit up a room and his mannerisms were a breath of fresh air. We were looking forward to having him as a son in law.

“ He shared life through JOY, the Smile never to be forgotten by so many. Family remember how full life was with him. To his Caitlyn hold to the fullness of life he gave you. Lean not to your own understanding but allow OUR WONDERFUL LORD AND SAVIOUR TO TAKE YOU THROUGH THESE DAYS AHEAD. Only HE will fully know all you NEED. When a candle is lit to burn with life as BARON lived life that is a reminder of Baron living life with each of you these 27 years.

Beyond this day will come another smile to warm your heart.

My heart felt love to each of you. I can say I understand every breathe you take because I have had to walk it in the loss of husband and children.
