“Joan was an inspiration to all of us at Brightwater, especially those of us who watched her daily 1-mile walks, done with determination and at a good clip. We will miss her and extend our sympathies to her family members.”

*I'm sadden and regret the passing of Mrs Reimsnider "Joan"
Unfortunately I just made aware of her passing yesterday Thu 1/4/21
I was fortunate enough to be acquainted with Joan through watchfully interacting with her as a companion at Brightwater
I was always astonished by her determination her steadfast commitment to live life with her robust and Independent zest for life over coming/defeating her physical challenges with a smile a twinkle in her eyes sincere caring of others & her admiration of humbleness and infectious happiness over each and every accomplishment:
her love of mastering the most complex detailed putting puzzles
together
Her 3 times a day walks around Brightwater's development at unbelievable speed (morning noon & evening)
Her self imposed and maintained self discipline
Her looking forward to her excise/work out group activity which I worked out along side of her
SHE WAS ALWAYS SO DETERMINED
Her common sense to make the best of each ever situation with vigour and appreciativeness her up beat attitude so positive humbling infectious to all those around her
HER ACCEPTING OF HER RESIDING AT BRIGHTWATER AND POSITIVELY ARTICULATING SUCH
I will always reflect/remember her anxiousness and happiness to know that her son would be arriving at Brightwater with one of her favorite delicious delights:
a milkshake
Her delight over the "possibility" that her daughter might relocate closer to her
Her pride and joy over her heritage her family specially the little ones/younger
SHE TRULY ENRICHED MY LIFE AND MORE OF A SELF AWARENESS OF SELF
Even though I was no longer employed at Brightwater my mind would occasionally wonder/gravitate to the so rewarding/educational heart warming experience I was afforded the pleasure by being an employee at Brightwater interacting with the numerous seniors residing there
SPECIALLY BEATRICE "JOAN" REIMSNIDER
Farewell my mentor and "I" truly believe a friend*
