“ Belinda will surely be missed . She fought a good fight. When I married her father-in-law, Bill O'Quinn, she always treated me with love and respect. I will always appreciate her kindness to me. I pray that God will fill the emptiness in your hearts with His tender love and care. Carolyn P. O'Quinn

“ I worked with her at Legends Golf Resort for many years. My boyfriend cheated on me and I cried so hard that night. I went to work and told her ( because she was like a sister, she knew everything about me). She told me not to work, but to go in one of the townhouses and sleep, she knew I needed it, because I was truly heart broken. ILOVED THIS Lady her daughters and mine daughter even worked together for her at sanddunes. I'm going to miss her SOOOOO much. Love you Tasha and Shanna

“ You accepted me from day one in October 2001 when I began dating Shanna. You cooked for me and fed me many many meals for 4 years until Shanna and I got married. I never remember you call me your son-in-law, but always as your son. I'll always miss you! I attached the picture from the fall of 2001 when we all got started on becoming family. As always you were rocking a big smile!
