“ To the family, We went to school and graduated with Benji this past June. He was one of the greatest people we've ever met. He never met a stranger and never had enemies. He was always smiling, joking and laughing wherever he went and could make the best out of any situation. It's terrible that such a wonderful person had to leave us, but just know that God has a plan and that right now, Benji is happier than ever and looking down on all of us. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family and may God bless you throughout this difficult time.##imported-begin##Calli Williams and Jonathan Whitener##imported-end##

“ Dear Mark, Laura, Susan, Chad, Brady, Ben, Jane and the rest of the Cunningham Clan, I am so very sorry and have thought of nothing else since I heard about Benji on Saturday. I am sorry that I couldn't make it to Conway to see you. I was going to drive Mother and Mrs. Vera down on Monday but couldn't rearrange my schedule as I'd hoped. I can't imagine what you're going through but know that you'll allow God and your faith to ease your pain. I do know what it's like to lose a brother, Chad and Brady, and it just sort of changes the entire fabric of your life. You'll never forget Benji, I can promise you. Try to incorporate his best qualities into your own lives and he'll live forever within your hearts. “ There are no words to ease the pain that you must be enduring. Having 3 sons ourselves, I can not imagine a greater grief than that of losing a child. May you find comfort in your memories, faith in your blessings and strength over time. Peace to you all, The Skinner Family##imported-begin##Sara & Riddick Skinner##imported-end##

“ Our prayers are with your family as you go through this horrific experience. I am the youngest of Mary and Francis Cunningham's children. We only hope that the peace of God will be with you and that you gain some peace in knowing that Benji is in heaven with his great grandfather, Ben, and those that have gone before him. There are no words that can express our sorrow! Betty Cunningham Hornsby##imported-begin##Betty Cunningham Hornsby##imported-end##

“ Benji was one of the first kids I taught vacation bible school and Sunday school..I loved hearing him sing and play the piano..I find it hard to believe what has happened and I wish I could make it all better but I can't. I only know that Benji is in the best company he can be in right now, even though we want him here. Brady, I am sorry and I pray for God's strength and comfort for you. God Bless.##imported-begin##Pamela Clark##imported-end##

“ Dear Mark and Family, I am so so sorry to hear about this horrible tragedy. I don't know what to say. My heart aches for you all. There are no words to express the amount of sorrow I feel. Just know that God will be with you through this. You don't have to go through it alone. Lean on your family and friends also for support and comfort. You are all like family to me and always will be. I think you all know that. I will pray for you continuously that God will give you the strength and courage to deal with your loss. May you never feel a single moment when you dont feel God's love and comfort. If you need me for anything I am here. Mark you are like a brother to me eventho we havent kept in touch like I would have liked. I hope you know how much I love you and your entire family. I will call you when you have had some time. May God Bless You All. Brian, Jane, Leah and Dylan Jarrett###imported-begin##Brian Jarrett###imported-end##

“ Sally and I have spending our time since hearing the news discussing memories of Benji and your entire family. We have no words that can express our feelings for your loss or understanding the difficulty your family is experiencing. Please know Benji and your family will be in prayers and thoughts in the days and weeks ahead.###imported-begin##Sally and Davis Taylor###imported-end##
