“ Since my dad used to work for his dad, Benny and I were long time friends. I think one of my first boat rides as a young boy was with his dad. I remember the day when the accident claimed his eye. He cut my hair several times through the years. Not only was Benny a good barber, he was also a great listener and conversationalist. Always easy going, just like his mom and dad. He was a special sort of fellow, and always had a mature and calm nature about him. I'm praying for all of his family during this sad time. May the good Lord hold you now as only He can.
