“ Paw paw I love and miss you right now. It's hard to think of just mee maw because yall have always been mee maw and paw paw in my mind. Not one without the other. I remember when I used to come stay with yall in the summer and we would go putt putt. You would actually keep score which would always infuriate me because I was your grandbaby you shouldn't beat me! But you did every time, I never won a single game against you. You were just that good. That patient. That was one thing that never changed about you and just one thing I'll miss. Your love and your patience and that little bit of fun that you had that kept you winning even at putt putt .

“ MeMaw,

Remember the one summer I went down to your house, and after we played put-put we stopped by a WINGS gift shop. I was wondering around the store and started playing with the toy hand cuffs. Paw Paw told me to stop playing with those and I didn't listen. I accidentally picked up real hand cuffs and got stuck in them and we had to call a locksmith to get me out of them.

I just wanted to share a funny moment, and maybe put a smile on your face.

I love you Paw Paw, keep walking with Jesus.
