

Bernadine Sattilo

March 7, 2010

Bernadine (Dina) Santillo, resident of River Club, beloved wife and loving and supportive mother died Sunday, March 6 at MUSC hospital. Born in 1945 in Elizabeth New Jersey, Bernadine grew up in Elizabeth where she attended Battin high school. She later moved to Cranford, NJ where she raised her family, worked part time and attended college. She graduated with a BA from Union County College and received a BS degree in business from Kean College in 1986. Dina worked for over 20 years in human resources for Anheuser Busch. She retired from Anheuser Busch in 2000 and moved to Pawleys Island, SC with her husband Joe Santillo. In retirement, Dina loved mahjong, book and supper clubs and bible study, and she distinguished herself by lavishing attention on her children and grandchildren. Friends and family will remember her generosity, love of family and ability to make even the most mundane activities seem special. She is survived by her husband of 16 years, Joseph Santillo, and her daughters, Debbie and her husband Don Guarriello of Cranford, NJ, Beth and her husband Terry Davis of Chapel Hill, North Carolina and four grandchildren, Steven and Michael Guarriello, and Nicole and Jessica Davis. She is survived by Joe's three children, Kimberly Santillo Meninger, her husband Scott and their son Christian, Kristen Santillo and Joseph Santillo, Jr. Bernadine is also survived by her sister Elaine Mai and brother Edward Nahalka. Family will receive friends from 6:00-8:00 PM Thursday, March 10, 2011 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Pawleys/Litchfield Chapel.
