“ I am very saddened at the news of Jim's death. It was my pleasure to spend several years in his company when he was one of our volunteers at Grand Strand Hospital. He came in to our department faithfully five days a week and stayed until we had shared lunch together. After his health forced him to give it up he would still stop by radiology to say hello. We have all lost a special person.##imported-begin##Martha SHEPARD##imported-end##

“ I first met Mr. Drysdale or as many of us called him in the Air Force Mr. D. When I was stationed at Myrtle Beach A.F.B. Transportation Squadron in 1989. I was a young 18yr old and went to Mr. D for advice on numerous occasions. I will always remember the words of wisdom and fatherly advice he would give. Two months ago I ran into Mr. D its been 10yrs since we last seen each other. Mr. D gave me a stern handshake and a hug. Mr. D then asked me what I've been doing all these years and I told him I was now a Detective with the Myrtle Beach Police Dept. Mr. D then said with a big smile on his face ?I'm proud of you?. The thing is if I can only accomplish half of what Mr. D did in his lifetime it would be a miracle. I'm proud of you Mr. D you have touched so many lives and you will always be remembered.##imported-begin##Tony Lever##imported-end##
