“ I have fond memories of spending the night at Betty's house when I was a little girl. I loved her cooking, and especially her cocker spainel. She was always so good to me.

Later in life as I grew up, and left the Inlet, we both worked together at the Myrtle Beach Hilton, I would see her almost daily. She was such a hard worker, and so dedicated to her job.

As we both aged we drifted apart, but I will always love my cousin Betty, very much.

Always,

My mother (Ingrid Hanson) knew Betty very well, and I was privileged to visit her many times in the last 2-3 years with my mother. She will be dearly missed by those of us who got to know her and love her. We will look forward to seeing her again soon in the Paradise earth that Jesus promised the evildoer who was hung on the torture stake next to him, when he said at Luke 23:43--"Truly I tell you today, you will be with me in Paradise."

6 years and I just found out about Miss Betty. Grew up summers in MB and always fished the Inlet. Always stopped at the bait shop and rented boats. Even ate dinner at the house once. Miss Betty was always nice and charming to me. I always think of her and know she is missed and admired. John Henson, Pittsburgh, PA
