“ Dear Meyer Family, We were so saddened to hear of the untimely passing of your wife and precious mother. Betty was one of those special people that you meet only once in a life-time. A person that would always go above and beyond for anyone and everyone. Her special soul and genuine love of children made her a magnet to everyone. Her legacy will live on in you her exceptional children in which she took such pride in. But also in the thousands of students she touched on a daily basis for years in the public schools of Horry County. I too was blessed to have known her. Take solice in the beautiful and sweet memories that you have of your wife and mom at this painful time. You have so many people that love you.##imported-begin##Ron, Melissa & Carli Crocker##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Meyer has touched our daughter, Avery with an abundance of love while attending Lakewood Ele. 2008-2009. Every night Avery prayed for Mrs. Meyer; the prayers were so moving and powerful that it brought tears to my eyes and it made me proud. Mrs. Meyer was always attentive to Avery's behavior good or bad. Mrs. Meyer will always have a special place in the Williams' family heart. “ Mike, Chris, A.J. and Nikki, ~ Betty has found a new home. She wants her family and friends to know that she has moved. She received a called from god that her new home was ready. Betty, go on girl and get fitted for your new wings. Heaven is smiling because a new angel has just entered in. No words alone can express how deeply and sadden we are to hear of your loss. I'm sadden too, but as Betty would say, Ramona, "It's gonna be alright." I will always remember those words. Walking through the hallways of school will never be the same. Betty, will always hold a special place in my heart. Betty, was such a kind, loving, and wonderful person to everyone she came to know. We prayed together, we laughed together, we cried together, we sing together, and we danced together. Betty, I will miss you!! It's painful to loose such a GREAT friend, but each day the Lord will give me strength to make it. My heart goes out to each of you. May God precious love shine upon you.
