“ This beautiful woman is my dearest, first cousin. She brought her “sweet Mother, my Aunt Marie to visit me back in the 90’s. They visited the cemetery in Richton where her Father was buried, afterwards they came back by & ate chicken pie with us. We had a “wonderful time together!” Always admired her poise & beauty....and that “sweet voice!” Love you, Betty. May God bless your sweet Family!

“ My granny was always my best friend, and will always remember her telling me she “loves me more” every time I tell her I love her. She also gave the best hugs and never would let you go. Would do anything to just get one more hug from my granny. She always had her family’s back to and wouldn’t let anyone walk all over her! We share the best memories, and I’m so thankful for them all. Granny is at peace and luckily no longer suffering. Loved her oh so much ❤️
