“ Dear Mr. George, Jo, Glen, Jason & Todd: We just wanted you to know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. What a christian example Mrs. Betty always showed us in her daily life. We all should strive to live our lives as she did, God, family, church and friends. She was a true Southern Lady and we all will miss her. We must thank our God for the promise of us all being together again one day and may you and your entire family find comfort in this promise of eternity. Our prayers are with you today and in the days to come. Ting, Sherrie, and Christian Todd###imported-begin##Sherrie Todd###imported-end##

“ Pop,Jo & Marty..where do we begin to comfort or heal when our hearts are so broken? You all are like our family and we will all miss our "Poo Doo", she was loved and she loved in return, that is the greatest gift of all. We know that today she is with God in all of his glory and with Mike and the flowersand that is the destination that we live for. Know that we will all see each other again and that you are loved dearly and prayed for daily. We are holding each one of you in our hearts. We love you ALL...Cindy, Ryan & Mandi and Rhett & Sayla##imported-begin##CYNTHIA B. AMMONS##imported-end##
