“ Betty lived her life as a real servant to God and to others. I remember her service in cleaning bathrms and making them a place of beauty as she made her home and Her life was an example to all of us of what it means to serve others for her Master the work she put in her home at Christmas showed love for Christ and her community. Now she is receiving her reward and I am sure Jesus is saying "wll done thy good and faithful servant". We will be praying for her great family she is leaving behind.

Betty was one of the sweetest, smartest ladies I have ever known. I made it a point a few years , ago to tell her how she had inspired me over the years. I saw a special glee in her eyes that day. So glad I did!! To all of you and the thousands that lined up each year to view her Christmas handiwork, I will remind you of what Betty would say...Jesus is the reason for the season!
