“ Lyles was always a kind, happy person, and I’m blessed we had so many good times over the years I was in Conway. Even though we only stayed in touch through occasional FaceBook messages, it was always with a smile and heartfelt message wondering if and when our paths might cross again. We had years of good times growing up, and her friendship will forever bring a smile to my face. I’ll fondly remember our time together at gymnastics, days on the trampoline and balance beam, beach days, and high school days. My sincere condolences to Charles, Mrs. Wade, and the rest of Lyle’s family. Heaven has definitely gained an angel, but her loss is felt deeply. A. Margie Barnes Blogin, Isla Mujeres, Mexico

“ I met Lyles last year while furniture shopping at Arhaus with my fiancé. We were immediately drawn to her kind spirit and eye for design! She was always SO helpful and spent a lot of time with us picking out and designing several rooms in our house! She was our “go to” person and we truly enjoyed working with her. I was shocked and deeply saddened to hear the news. My heart and thoughts go out to her family during this time. We sure will miss seeing Lyles and her beautiful smile! Rest In Peace.

“ Lyles was and will always be, a spirit that lives on in so many memories, so many shared laughs, and dreams of far too many years to count. I am so blessed to have reconnected with her when we both ended up in North Carolina at the same time these last few years. You will be missed, Lyles, but truly never too far away in my heart.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Wade Family...

“ When I think of Lyles, I think of smiles & laughter. She was always the funniest person in the room! Although I had not had any contact with her since our 1991 class reunion (I don't do Facebook), I remember my last time with her being a happy one. She was a lovely human - inside & out. My deepest condolences to Mrs. Sue Nell, Charles & family.

I've known Lyles for 20 odd years. She was my "skinny betty twin". I can hear her laugh, feel her smiles and kindness. I'm so devastated. I'm going to miss her so much xoxoxo. Love you Lyles. My deepest condolences to her family. Jennifer Bourgeois
