“ Priscilla, I met you and your mother while working with Luke Rankin. She was such a joy, and I will always have special memories of her and her Christmas cookies.

“ I had the pleasure of working part time with Bettye at the Holiday Inn in Surfside Beach for several years. Such a delight to be around and she shared many memories and photos of her past with me. Since I worked at Piggly Wiggly in Surfside Beach, she always came into the store to shop and we kept our friendship going for many years. She was truly a beautiful, caring, wonderful Lady to know without a doubt and she just loved my homemade cheesecakes. She will be greatly missed and I was certainly blessed having her in my life, if only for a moment in time. Rest in peace my friend, job well done. May perpetual light always shine upon her.

To my sweet friend Bettye. Can't believe you have been gone from us for four years now. You are loved and missed so very much. You would be so happy to see Kelli's beautiful little girl, Lennon. She is adorable. Thank you to your family for sharing you with us at Shepherd of the Sea and New Life Lutheran Churches. I always enjoyed our little talks and the time spent together. I know you must be singing for Jesus and the angels. Love you for always.
