“ Sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. You are in my prayers. I lost my mother in March and it hurts but she is happy to finally be with daddy. She like to tell me how she and your mother would share a candy bar on the way home from school.

“ To each of you, I wish to send my love and sympathy in the loss of my sweet friend Beulah. I have known her pretty much all my life, and every time I saw her, I just had to smile. Some people are so easy to love and Beulah was one of those. My parents loved her dearly and she always said mother was the one who encouraged her to go to nursing school. That was her calling and she had the compassionate heart to care for others. God bless each of you! In Christian love, Shirley and Harry Cribb
