“ I can't tell you how lucky I am to have this family in my life. When I first met Sandra I knew my life wouldn't be the same.....and it hasn't been :- She is my closest and dearest friend. I met Dot and Bill "Chin" not too long after knowing Sandra and knew exactly why she is the person she is. This is the most loving, caring family and to everybody not just me and my husband Jeff. We will truly miss Bill but he will always be in our hearts and conversations. He was a dear person and it reflects in his family and friends. Love Always!!! “ Dear Dot, Steve and Sandra--- I am so sorry to hear that Bill has passed. Everyone says it because it is so true: He showed that you can be a real man and still show sweetness. It is so lacking in today's world, it seems. But he knew how to be that. One of my fondest memories of dear Bill is of him and Don in their Hawaiian shirts sitting on the deck by your pool in Charlotte during the luau you gave. Don was playing the guitar and they were singing and Bill had his arms raised up to the sky ... pure joy. He called us "Sugar" and spoke to us like we something precious and dear... even if he didn't know you very well and even if you were a balky young person who thought she had no use for tenderness... he made you his through instant acceptance. I didn't realize that Bill and Dot were childhood sweethearts til Dot shared her photo album with us a couple of years ago at their home. It gave me whole new appreciation of them and what they have gone through together... all of life's joys and sorrows. I often think of Dot and Bill as examples of how we can be if we try very hard and are very lucky. We are so blessed to have known Bill Tuttle.##imported-begin##Kim Fox##imported-end##

“ Dot, Steve and Sandra; You have made me feel like a family member for all these years. You have opened your hearts and your home to so many of us that we all feel a part of your family. Bill was the sweetest and most generous man. I can hear him saying, "Sugar, did we offer you something to drink? You go right on in the kitchen and get what ever you want. What's mine is yours!" That's how he was about everything. One of my fondest memories is the easter egg hunt that Dot and Bill organized for the kids. Two funny things stick out in my mind. We "the kids" were in our late 20's and the plastic eggs had money in them instead of candy. Bill stood on the deck flapping his arms to get my attention. Then he would secretly point the eggs out to me. I will never forget how special he ALWAYS made me feel. I love you all!###imported-begin##Angie Fox###imported-end##

“ To Dot, Sandra, and Steven, I feel so much sorrow! I wish I could be with you! I have always felt like a member of the family and I will never buy a car in my life that I won't wonder what Bill would think of it!!! What wonderful memories of the most gregarious and loving man! You are truly special people and I love you all!

“ Sweet, dear Uncle Bill....how you made us smile! We remember a gentle and generous man that could spin a funny tale in such a way that the kids always wondered if it were really true. He made the girls giggle and they always ended up on the arm of his chair just to be near him. We will miss you. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Dot, Sandra and Steve as they face the days ahead. God Bless!!
