“ A note to all the family members and good friends of Bill, who are still in shock by his sudden departure. Our hearts ache with you. It is hard to get our minds around it. We are not through enjoying his company and feeling his love and care. Through the years we've enjoyed talking with him and then when he worked at Ward's Funeral Home we got to feel his care and compassion. Now in these last months, several of us have broke bread and drank coffee at Bojangles. He seemed to enjoy working and looked sharp when he dressed up for a funeral. What a kind and loving daddy figure. I wanted to talk with him more about his growing up years in Loris, when his brother gave him a dollar to go to the movies...when he visited the mule stables, when he worked on the farm outside of town. He gave us a count down on the remaining radiation treatments he had at Myrtle Beach each day. The other men who had gone through the same treatment kept encouraging him that the few discomforts would soon disappear. He even brought messages to them from the doctor there. He was excited that Thursday was the last day of treatments. Friday morning early, he was the same caring, friendly, precious man who let us see his love shinning through his smile, voice, and twinkling eyes. May God take his hand, and may the Holy Spirit comfort all of us. Lou Floy Milligan

“ I met Bill four years ago as we both worked for Ward Funeral Home[Goldfinch Loris}. Bill and I immediately became best friends. We had some great times fishing and teasing one another. Bill had his priorities in order: God, family, friends, etc. There is no doubt in my mind that Brother Bill is in Heaven today! Bill will be missed here on earth but oh what a great reunion to come!
I know my friend Bill is checking out fishing holes and eating establishments in heaven.
My God grant his wife children, and all other family members peace and comfort in the days to come.
