“ First met Bill in 1970 when he and Gerri lived in a small trailer w/the two girls outside of Sumter AFB. I will always remember Bill as a kind and gentle person who loved his family and was always there for them. May his girls be at peace knowing he is now resting.

Billie Jo and Mitzi, we love you both and our prayers are with you now and always. I'm sure Papa and your dad are having a great reunion and if there are places in heaven for fishing I'm sure that they have found them and have had a great time with their poles and lines in the water. We loved him so much and always enjoyed his visit to south GA when he came down. May God's peace and comfort be with you all during this time.
