

Billie Mae Richardson

February 23, 2007

Billie Graham Richardson, age 73, wife of the late John Clayton Richardson, of Pee Dee Hwy., died Friday February 23, 2007 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Mrs. Richardson was born September 7, 1933 in Conway, a daughter of the late Randolph C. and Sadie Lee Martin Graham. Billie graduated from Conway High School, and North Greenville Baptist College. After graduating college she met her husband Clayton Richardson the love of her life. She was married for 44 wonderful years until his death in 1998. She was a member and treasurer of Pauley Swamp Baptist Church and volunteered at Southern Baptist Association for many years. Billie loved working for the county, she worked for 41 years in the Clerk of Courts office, and was Clerk of Court for 21 years. She was a born politician who loved helping others. Another one of her loves was traveling. After retiring she was able to travel to Europe twice, the Holy Land, and Alaska which was one of her dreams. But her favorite thing in the world was her children, and grandchildren. Surviving are one son, Perry Clayton Richardson of Nashville Tenn., one daughter Sheri R. Richard and her husband, Kevin of Myrtle Beach, three grandchildren, Savannah Richard, Bailey Richard and Ashley Fredy, three brothers, Carl Graham and his wife, Betty of Myrtle Beach, Jimmy R. Graham and his wife, Barbara and Danny B. Graham and his wife, Charley all of Conway, three sisters, Verma G. Anderson and her husband, Buck of Conway, Joyce G. Girling and her husband, Geoffrey of Charleston and Marcia G. Furches and her husband, Tim of Pensacola, FL. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM Tuesday at Pauley Swamp Baptist Church with Dr. Terry Grainger and Dr. Dan Grider officiating. Entombment will follow in Hillcrest Mausoleum directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. The family will receive friends from 5:00 until 8:00 PM Monday at the funeral home. Memorials may be sent to the Alzheimers Association - Coastal Carolina Chapter, P.O. Box 80459 Charleston, SC 29416-0459. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
