“ We are sorry to hear of Mr. Hendrick's death. My husband and I got to know him at our hot dog stand, Big O's Dog House. At some point he invited me and my six Winthrop College friends to be the Grand Marshals for the Murrells Inlet Boat Parade. We had a wonderful time. Someone made a great photo of us and gave each of us a copy. Thank you, Mr. Hendrick.

“ Tony, Andy and entire family: My sincere condolences to you all. I have many good memories when you were neighbors on Burroughs St. in the '60's and ,70's. May all of your good memories of him keep you in comfort. Tony... I remember your funny story about going outside after putting bread in the toaster. You said your father came outside waving the burnt toast in his hand and shouted to you "Toast is done!!!"
