“Nadine and family, just wanted to take a moment to tell you I am sorry for your loss & about the wonderful precious memories I have of Bobby! There are sooo many! As you are aware, Bobby, Marshall and Oren were very close for many years and did a great work for the Lord in visiting others and sharing God’s word. It is so wonderful to have all these precious memories! He was so special to us and many others. I’m so sorry for the struggles he’s been through over the years with his different sicknesses, but I can promise you one thing, he’s in a better place. And I am sure you feel the same way as I do & many others who have lost their loved ones. Watching them suffer was horrific and I wouldn’t bring them back if I could. What a joy to know he’s in the presence of God. My Bible tells me, Absent from the body, present with the Lord. May God give you the peace that only he can provide; my prayers and thoughts are with you all. Our loss is certainly Heaven’s gain! All my love, Judy Cannon Singleton

“ A bright light has been extinguished in this world. Bobby was the real deal. He had a passion for the lost and for the sick and shut ins. They will miss his frequent visits. Our prayers go out to his sweet family. We are so blessed that God has allowed us to have them as friends.

“ To know Bobby Brown, was to love Bobby Brown. He had a personality that was larger than life. As Vicki's best friend growing up, I spent a great deal of time with the family and he always treated me like a daughter. I will miss him with all my heart. May God bless the Brown family. - Carol Boatwright Burroughs
