

Bonnie B. Larrimore

September 8, 2006

Galivants Ferry.....Bonnie B. Larrimore, wife of Pastor Leroy Larrimore, of Mill Swamp Road, went on to be with Her Lord on September 8, 2006. Mrs. Larrimore was born October 8, 1944 in Conway, a daughter of the late Eddie and Annie J. Brown and Mazie Brown Cooper. She was a lifelong member of Pee Dee Freewill Original Baptist Church and always did her part and more. She was the First Lady of the Church. She along with her husband, gave their lives to the Lord. She loved her family, church and reading and studying the Bible. While others slept, she would sit in her chair beside the window, praying and talking to the Lord. There was no time table for her when it came to the Lord and her family. She was a Classy Lady, who held up herself to the top. She was her husbands righthand, soulmate and strength. He lost his second best friend, but his best friend, Jesus, is with him every step of the way. Our lives will never be the same without our Momma and Daddys, "Sugarbabe" but she is picking roses in Heaven and shouting on the Hills of Glory. Mrs. Larrimore was predeceased by one brother, Bill Lee Thompkins. Surviving are her loving and devoted husband of 46 1/2 years , Pastor Leroy Larrimore of Galivants Ferry, one daughter, Patsy Roberts and her husband, Doug of Galivants Ferry, two sons, Jerry "Buddy" Larrimore and his wife, Heidi and Minister Kenneth Larrimore and his wife, Pam all of Galivants Ferry, two sisters, Elizabeth "Lib" Hattaway and Doris Thompkins both of Conway, ten grandchildren whom she adored and so often sat up all night and prayed for, Bradley Gray, Kent Gray, Candice Gray, Chase Larrimore, Hillary Larrimore,

Caroline Larrimore, Tasha Lee, Alecia Larrimore, Courtney Larrimore and Buck Larrimore, two step-grandchildren, Ashley Roberts and Brandon Roberts, and was once again blessed with three great-grandchildren, Lyndsey Gray, Harleigh Gray and Austen Gray, and one step-great-grandchild, Lexi, and a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM Monday at Pee Dee Original Freewill Baptist Church with Rev. Buddy Seay, Rev. Norman Johnson and Rev. D. J. Boyd officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. The family will receive friends from 6:00 until 8:00 PM Sunday at the funeral home. “ *Reverend Leroy and Family: Faye just called and let me know about Mrs. Bonnie's passing. We did not know earlier or we would have been by your side. We are all in shock and saddened that her beauty, grace, laughter and beautiful smile has been taken away from us. She was an example of how all of us should lead our lives, in love of the Holy Spirit and love of others. I hope there is some comfort for you and your family knowing where she is. She was a precious soul who brightened the lives of all that she met. We will always remember how she and you were so dedicated to Daddy and were always there when he called. We tried to take care of his physical needs. You and Mrs. Bonnie took care of his spiritual needs with God's help. I told Faye that Daddy was probably there waiting to see if she brought him some strawberries from Tyler's produce. God puts people here on earth who take a place in our hearts and they remain there forever. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. One last thought that I hope brings some solace to you. "Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy." We all have another guardian angel to guide us on the path. Take care and remember that we love you and thought the world of Mrs. Larrimore. Peace and God Bless. “ I'm very sorry to hear about your loss. I know it is a hard time for the family right now, it is a very sad thing to lose a loved one. Death is becoming so prevelant in the world, and it hurts us all because it is unnatural, God did'nt create man to have to go through this, it wasnt his original purpose. Gen. 2:17 states how death began, but he was warning Adam and Eve, he didnt want them to do it. Instead, as John 6:40 says ?This is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son that is, perceives and acknowledges that Jesus truly is God?s Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him at the last day.? Wont it be a wonderfull time when we will be able to meet our dead loved ones once again? Well God has promised such a time. Hopefully these scriptures may comfort you in some way. My condolences to the family and friends, your in my prayers, Elijah. John 3:16, 36; John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:3,4.##imported-begin##Elijah Salim##imported-end##
