“ THE BALLAD OF A ROSE A rose in bliss amongst an abundance of its own, Just another flawless bud; distinct identity unknown. Everyday came and went, but she need not complain. All she needed was provided; she was not disdain. But it soon came apparent that her routine was quite dreary. Redundancy was unbearable; from her life she was now weary. This rose became determined; she need not be one of many. Her ambition was immeasurable; she'd be unparalleled by any. Come one day, to her dismay, from Earth she was removed; The others gawked with rosebuds cocked, baffled and behooved. She gazed above and fell in love with this elderly man indeed; A beard of white and emerald eyes bright, he countered-stared in glee. Unblemished you are, a towering par, the kind man softly cooed, Placed her in a vase, admired her grace; she shone in solitude. the care with which he treated her was that to fit a queen; The sensitivity he portrayed, she had never seen. Touching her leaves, she believes a tear wells in his eye, Fighting back the emotional crack, he whimpers in a sigh. She felt a chill and fought a shrill cool touch approached her stem; Ten fingertips. without gripe; she was engulfed in them. Sacred flower, you've come this hour in service to my love; She's left me alone, he said with a moan, and you'll escort her to above. You were my selection among the collection for the timeless beauty and grace; You are like my sherrie, who come January, has left me with this world to face. Your ultimate task, the one thing I ask, is that you be her protection; Always stand by her, never misguide her, and eternally guard her perfection. The rose with a sob, promised this job, and rested in confidence and pride; Her duty fulfilled, so uniquely willed; in her importance she now could confide.##imported-begin##Jessica Martin##imported-end##

“ Dear Family of Bonnie Louise McCombs: The resurrection is indeed a wonderful miracle. Bonnie may have built up a great amount of experience and knowledge and many memories over a lifetime. She developed a personality that made her different from any other person that ever lived. Yet God remembers every detail, and will restore this complete person when He resurrects her. As the Bible says of the dead to be resurrected: "They are all living to him." (Luke 20:38) Humans can record voices and pictures of people, and play them back long after the people have died. But God can, and actually will, bring back to life all persons who are living in His memory! May you be comforted. 2 corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Groycynne Mc Coy##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss, and hope that you find comfort in the words that Jesus said at John 5:28; "the hour is coming when all those in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope this scripture will help your family cope with the loss of your loved one.##imported-begin##Rosa Brown##imported-end##

“ Grieve for me Not, when I am gone: Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery, trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened. But Rejoice, in as much as you are partakers of Christ's sufferings; Hence, when HIS GLORY shall be revealed, YOU maybe glad with exceeding JOY!! God Bless all my children, may this remind them our time on earth is short! In lue of flowers, I am sending a donation in your honor to St. Michael's Catholic Church.##imported-begin##John J Baker, Sr##imported-end##
