

Bonnie Odom

June 3, 1935 - January 20, 2012

Mrs. Bonnie Kathleen Odom, wife of Jerry Odom of Myrtle Beach, passed away Friday, January 20, 2012 at NHC surrounded by her family.

Mrs. Odom was a daughter of the late Clyde and Carrie Godrey. Bonnie was a member of Myrtle Beach Church of Christ. She was retired from Walmart and a homemaker who loved baking. Mrs. Odom was a dedicated wife, Mother, Grandmother, Sister, and Friend who will be missed by her family and friends. She was a serious christian who always loved to help others. She was predeceased in death by three sisters, Irene Raney, Gerelene Criner, and Nadine Thompson.

Surviving in addition to her husband are son Darren and Debra Odom and grandsons Zachary and Joshua of Myrtle Beach; sons Dale and Darrell Robotille of California; one brother, Troy Norman Godrey of Brumley, MO; and several nephews and nieces in California.

Services will be at the Hillcrest Cemetery Chapel at 11:00 am, Tuesday, January 24, 2012 with a visitation one hour prior.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Myrtle Beach Church of Christ building fund, 4500 Wild Iris Drive, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577.

Sign an online guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com/obituaries.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

“ *My Memories of Aunt Bonnie:
Oh how beautiful she is: Her hair so bright, her smile so witty, her voice so sweet, her eyes so pretty. My thoughts the first time I met her. She was full of life and her laughter was contagious. I liked her a lot.*

*On January 20, 2012, my sweet aunt completed her time on earth.
We never lived near one another, her in California and South Carolina, me in Missouri and Texas. I knew she loved me even though we did not see each other for years.*

So today I have feelings of everlasting love for my Aunt Bonnie as she evolves into a beautiful being of light. The light of love shone within her. I am thankful she is at peace and she is whole.
