“ RIP my YAYA Friend Brenda!! I will always remember our good times working together and hanging out. You were a Blast and I had so much fun with you. Love you always, YAYA Diane Thompson

“ Our sympath goes out to Will and Rose. I always considered Brenda a good friend and my heart is so saddened with her passing.

Brenda and I use to go on trips to various parts of the world. I remember one trip in particular to London. I had booked a room in a hotel on the first floor. In the US the first floor is ground level but in Europe the first floor is one level up. This hotel had no elevator or porter. This was a two week trip and we had a lots of luggage. I went ahead up the stairs to find the room. Before I got to the room I heard a loud thud and scream. When I went to the stairwell I found Brenda sprawled on top of the luggage. She had attempted to carry the luggage up the stairs and she fell over backwards. At first I thought she was crying but as I got closer I realized she was laughing. It had been a very long day with lots of travel delays. I have so many similar stories and fond memories of Brenda.

*"Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear."*

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ We send our love and condolences to Brenda's family and friends. will remember Brenda when she was healthy and happy and involved with Tony and the Springfield American Legion. I think she was at the top of her game during that time. In her passing, her spirit has been set free to soar with God, His angels, and her family and friends, who passed before her. May she be at peace in God's presence and may you find peace in this belief as well. Love, Linda, Neal and Dodie

“ To the Burns Family:

In your sorrow, may there be peace....In your thoughts, may there be love....In your hearts, may there be healing. Psalm 147:3 promises: “He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots.”

*My condolences,
SBA.*
